

Parking Policy and Restricted Areas

Parking of personal motor vehicles is a privilege granted by the University. In order to maintain safe and clear means of movement, parking slots are provided to the students. Students are not allowed to park in areas designated for faculty and staff. Students are not allowed to enter administrative and faculty offices without permission.