

Student Email

Each student will be provided with his/her own official XUSOM email address for their use to communicate with faculty and administration. Faculty and staff will not read or reply to student emails from a non-XUSOM account. Students are required to check their school email daily and respond promptly if needed. All official communications with XUSOM will come to the student's email.